Consider Becoming a Town Meeting Member!

Town Meeting Members have the opportunity to vote on a wide variety of important issues affecting the Town, including:

- Budgeting and funding levels for the Board of Health, Police, Schools, Recreation, Council on Aging, Department of Public Works, and General Town administration
- Bylaw and zoning matters
- Human services (transportation, economic issues, etc.)
- Land use and open space

What is the time commitment?

Burlington typically holds Town Meeting three times per year: January, May, and September. The May meeting is generally the most time-intensive, as the annual town budget is reviewed. Special Town Meetings may be called, but this is infrequent.
