

RECYCLING OPTIONS FOR BULBS/BATTERIES/ ELECTRONICS AND MORE

HOME DEPOT 60 Walkers Brook Drive, Reading
(781-944-6423)

Will take CFLs, fluorescent tubes, rechargeable batteries and cell phones at no charge. Bin at front of store or ask at service desk.

LOWES 15 Commerce Way, Woburn
(781-376-5500)

Will take CFLs, fluorescent tubes, rechargeable batteries and cell phones at no charge. Bin at front of store or ask at service desk.

O'CONNOR'S
HARDWARE 446 Boston Road, Billerica
(978-663-3520)

Will take CFLs, fluorescent tubes of all kinds at no charge. Bring straight to electrical department. Will also take propane tanks.

BATTERIES
PLUS BULBS 173A Cambridge Road, Woburn
(781-528-6387)

Will take many types of bulbs & batteries. There may be a fee.
www.batteriesplus.com/t/recycling/battery

WHOLEFOODS 400 Cambridge Road, Woburn
(781-376-9600)

Will take CFLs and any fluorescent tubes at no charge. Ask at service desk.

BEST BUY 84 Middlesex Turnpike, Burlington
(781-238-8149)

Will recycle many products for free; others have a fee.
www.bestbuy.com and search "recycling"

STAPLES 111 Middlesex Turnpike, Burlington
(781-221-4610)

Will take batteries (alkaline, button, laptop, lithium-ion, rechargeable, UPS), cell phones, inkjet & toner cartridges, and many electronics.
www.staples.com/stores/recycling#rec

REPUBLIC
SERVICES Burlington's curbside pick-up
(800-442-9006)

Call Republic to schedule a pick-up of a bulk item such as furniture. For a fee, Republic will also collect tires, large metal items, CRTs, TV's, appliances and other electronics. A fee schedule can be found on the DPW website. www.burlington.org/new_departments/trash_and_recycle.php

